Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 25, 2016, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she sustained left shoulder injuries from an influenza ("flu") vaccination she received on October 6, 2015. On December 22, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 17).

On January 9, 2017, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 21). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $11,092.50 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $693.99 for a total amount of $11,786.49. Id. at 1. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner has filed a signed statement indicating petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses.

On January 11, 2017, respondent filed a response stating respondent “does not object to the overall amount sought, as it is not an unreasonable amount to have been incurred for proceedings in this case to date.” (ECF No. 22). However, the “lack of objection to the amount sought in this case should not be construed as an admission, concession, or waiver as to the hourly rates requested, the number of hours billed, or the other litigation related costs.” Id.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner’s request and the lack of opposition from respondent, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner’s motion for attorneys’ fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards $11,786.49,³ representing reimbursement for all attorneys' fees and costs, in the form of a check payable jointly to petitioner and petitioner’s counsel, Jeffrey S. Pop.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.
